

Mitchell

MD200

... It's ELECTRIC!

The Mitchell MD200 guitars (Modern Double-Cutaway) are the ideal entryway for getting into aggressive sounds for the heavy and hard rock player on a budget. They feature a double-cutaway basswood body, one-piece maple neck, and a full-tilt H/Mini-H pickup system – your first step on the road to LOUD!

BASICS

Basswood body, off-set double-cutaway design

Maple one-piece bolt-on neck

H/Mini-H rail pickup configuration

FEATURES AND BENEFITS

Rail-style ceramic pickups reduce tonal dropouts

Ultra-carve heel joint for extra comfort and allow easy access to upper frets

High-tensile strength fretwire for durability and smooth playing

HIGHLIGHTS

Paraffin-dipped ceramic pickups reduce microphonics & feedback

Deep Bevel Cutaway (DBC) allows complete fretboard access

String-through design and adjustable TOM-style bridge for sustain and solid intonation

Back-angled output jack helps eliminate accidental unplugging
