

Mitchell

MD300

...It's ELECTRIC!

The Mitchell MD300 guitars (Modern Double-Cutaway) feature everything you want in a modern and refined music machine, and nothing you don't. Comes with a carved, double-cutaway basswood body, one-piece maple neck, and an H/Mini-H pickup system. They're the ideal configuration for the heavy and hard rock player looking for aggressive sound dynamics without the price tag.

BASICS

Carved basswood body, off-set double-cutaway design

Maple one-piece bolt-on neck

H/Mini-H rail pickup configuration

FEATURES AND BENEFITS

Rail-style Alnico V pickups reduce tonal dropouts

Deep Bevel Cutaway (DBC) allows complete fretboard access

Locking tuning machines and Graph Tech™ TUSQ XL reduced-friction nut enhance tuning stability

HIGHLIGHTS

Paraffin-dipped Alnico V pickups reduce microphonics & feedback

Ultra-carve heel joint for extra comfort and allow easy access to upper frets

String-through design and adjustable TOM-style bridge for sustain and solid intonation

Back-angled output jack helps eliminate accidental unplugging
